SELECTMEN'S COMMENTS AND REPORTS:

Mr. Cahalane:

Mr. Cahalane stated ownership has been established of an unknown owner property at Map 408 lot 37 and proper documentation has been located.

The ZBA approved Case #091.

State Representative Ed Comeau and Government Oversight acknowledged in an email the efforts of the Board in trying to get a school tax reduction due to residents because of reduced services of the GWRSD.

He also feels there appears to be discrepancies in the residency verification sent in from the school district.

Mr. Fuller:

Mr. Fuller reported seven of eight windows have been replaced at the Library.
He also reported the residents are complying with the Transfer Station rules and disposal fees.
He and Mr. Burke will meet to discuss the NH Public Deposit Investment Pool.
Hazardous Waste day is still being worked out. Many volunteers have stepped up to aid in the event.
The Chair of CIP is asking Boards to turn in their surveys.

Mr. Hart:

Mr. Hart will be filling in at Transfer Station Wednesday, July 14th
The Boston Post Cane display cases have been completed by Jack Williams. Pictures will be available on town website to show off his workmanship soon.

Assessing Tech Gwen English Reporting:

Gwen reported she is reaching out to Schofield Auctions in preparation for town owned property sale and location planning.

Police Sergeant Ian MacMillan Reporting:

The tires piled on Green Mountain Road will be disposed of in an agreement made with the property owner.
